Home of the Birthplace of Country Music, this region echoes the passion of history's most dominant country music pioneers. At the Birthplace of Country Music Museum, a major venue along The Crooked Road, the SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA BLUE RIDGE HIGHLANDS continues to honor Bristol, Virginia's influence on music around the world. Outdoor lovers also flock to the Blue Ridge Highlands to take in the spectacular mountain views from Mt. Rogers, the highest peak in Virginia, and the scenic Blue Ridge Parkway. The Appalachian Trail, Creeper Trail and the New River also pass through this region, making it a hub for outdoor enthusiasts.

- START WITH A TOUR OF THE Glencoe Museum in Radford for a look at life after the Civil War, before heading to Blacksburg to catch a Virginia Tech football game at Lane Stadium. Hike the urban Huckleberry Trail or see a show or exhibit at the Moss Arts Center on Virginia Tech's campus.
- GET A HEALTHY DOSE of the outdoors with an easy hike to the Cascades in Pocahontas, a leisurely float on the New River or climb on a paddleboard at Claytor Lake State Park in Dublin. Hike or bike the New River Valley Trail, a 57-mile railbed with easy access in Draper, Pulaski or Galax. Plan a weekend around Galax for the world's oldest fiddlers convention, the Blue Ridge Music Center, and visit the historical Rex Theater for a movie night, live concert or community play. Don't forget to catch a game with the Pulaski Yankees, farm team of the New York Yankees.
- CYCLE FLOYD MAKES IT EASY TO SEE beautiful Floyd County from your bike with maps and guides. Finish up at the Friday Night Jam at the Floyd Country Store or catch a game with the Pulaski Yankees, farm team of the New York Yankees, at Lane Stadium.
- CLIMB THE TOWER for spectacular views at Big Walker Lookout in Wytheville, and tap your toes to music at the Big Walker Country Store. Pick your own fresh herbs and visit the Butterfly House at Beagle Ridge Herb Farm before dinner and a show at Wohlfahrt Haus Dinner Theatre. Stay at the Boiling Wilson Hotel in the heart of Wytheville for boutique accommodations and southern fare with a twist.
- THE WINDING MOUNTAIN ROADS and incredible views known as the Claw of the Dragon are legendary among motorcycle enthusiasts. Hop on at Wytheville and head to Marion to enjoy mountain music at Song of the Mountains, Virginia's official TV series, in the beautiful Art Deco Lincoln Theatre. Camp and enjoy swimming, kayaking and fishing at Hungry Mother State Park.
- ATTEND A PLAY at Abingdon's Historic Barter Theatre, the State Theatre of Virginia, where the price of admission was once 40 cents worth of produce. Then head over to Damascus for a hike or ride on the Creeper Trail. A converted railbed, the trail stretches 34 miles from Abingdon to Whitetop, passing through the Mount Rogers National Recreation Area, which contains the highest elevation in Virginia.
- FOLLOW THE BLUE RIDGE HIGHLANDS, the city of Virginia Beaches, with Tennessee, with a visit to the Birthplace of Country Music Museum for an immersive experience of sound, history and culture and an exploration of the "Bristol Sessions," dubbed "the single most important event in country music history" by Johnny Cash. Catch a game with the Pittsburg-owned Bristol Pirates.
- VISIT PRISTINE SOUTH HOLSTON Lake, located in Bristol and Abingdon, for every kind of outdoor aquatic experience. Camping, fishing, boating, cabin rentals, waterpark, equipment rentals: whether you want high-energy activities, kid-friendly fun or solitude in nature, you can find it on South Holston Lake.
